LOGLINE

A gentle baby alien from the Moon winds up on Earth and discovers a whole new world of friendship, joy and wonder with a little help from his new forest buddies.

Core target age: 2-4 y.o.

Format: 26x4' new episodes, based on a legacy TV series (library 400 eps)

Genre: light comedy for toddlers and preschoolers

Moonzy

It's been a long time since he came from the moon, so he's and his forest neighbors have long since fallen in love with him for his warm, loving and kind personality. Moonzy always strives to resolve conflict and wants to make sure that everyone around him is happy. Moonzy has a great sense of humor, he's responsible and simple at heart. Moonzy gets along with everyone, both young and old; and children absolutely love him.

Skip

Skip is Moonzy's best friend. His life motto is "better, faster, harder, stronger." He's easy to get going and very, very funny. He's active, energetic, curious, observant, and innovative and can easily "connect the dots." He loves making bets or meeting new challenges head on; he is nimble and has a competitive side. His interests often intersect with the interests of caterpillars Woopsie and Poopsie, and sometimes with the moral-inclined Dottie. Sometimes Skip lies or gets ahead of himself with self-praise, but he always recognizes his mistakes.

Weebee

Weebee is a hardworking, logical, valuable member of the bee colony. He listens to his bee teachers and all other elders. He's quite a busy little bee and can often be found gathering pollen with other bees. He loves to learn and is a straight 'A' student. He has a soft spot for Dottie and is a loyal and engaging friend.

Dottie

Dottie loves building sandcastles and has a soft spot for Weebie as well. She is also a typical straight 'A' student; she sticks to the rules and keeps her word. Her weapons of choice are cunning and tears (when necessary.) When offended Dottie doesn't hold back and will lash out at the offender; she can take of herself!

Caterpillars Woopsie and Poopsie

Woopsie and Poopsie are inseparable caterpillar twins. Studies have shown that they are the most popular characters on the show. At times they can be gluttonous and a little greedy but they are never outwardly mean. The twins might tease and taunt their fellow forest residents but this only breathes more merriment into their group dynamic.

The Butterflies

The Butterflies are fun, fashion-loving gals who always have mirrors and killer accessories at hand. They are very proud of their beauty and their innate elegance. They like to gossip and are a little simple-minded on the whole. The Butterflies also like to spread rumors through the forest and have a good laugh about it later. Their rumor-spreading habits can sometimes cause problems when rumors turn out to be false.

General Stinger

Stinger is a former army man; and he has retained an army-like sense of discipline and strictness. In truth the General is all talk; he fancies nothing more than a comfy couch, a cup of tea and Granny's famous pies. However, if anything were to threaten his wood or friends he would quickly resume the General persona and would be at hand to help and instill order. The General likes to teach the younger generation survival training, but most often you will find him napping after a delicious meal.
